Independent Study

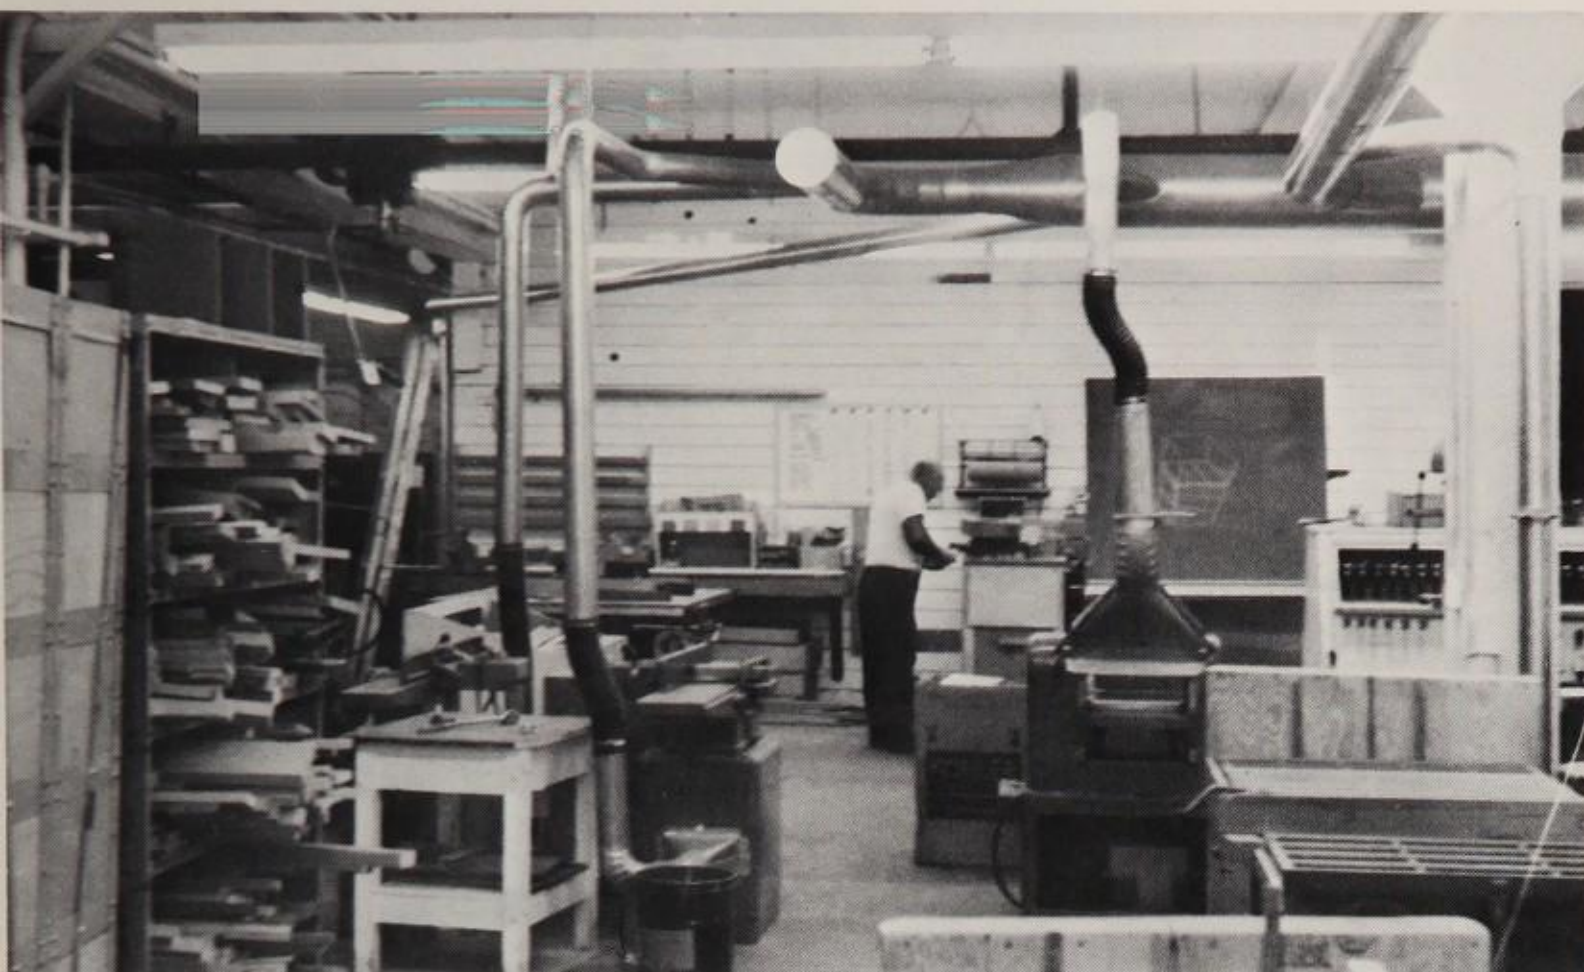

In recent years DHS students have discovered that the method of independent study yields best results. Added this year to the Independent Study System were the Language Arts, Science, Home Economics, Art, and Social Science Resource Centers, initiated to encourage creative thinking. Some ingenious students found other places.

A new concept in education in The Dalles Senior High School, the Vocational Skill Center is fast becoming one of the most popular areas of academics. The Skill Center is unique in its variety of courses offered previously on a smaller scale last year. Remodeled as a result of a bond election, the building was formerly the Inland Navigation Company and has been renovated to suit the need of classrooms and shop areas. The Skill Center is based on the concept that students can learn the various skills by doing them as they are taught. This is the first year in the program and it will be another five years before it can be labeled a "success," according to Mr. Robert Taylor, Administrator of the Skill Center. A unique thing about the Skill Center this year is that classes participated in learning experiences by practicing their newly-learned skills by joining in the actual planning and remodeling of the Skill Center itself.

The art department was relocated in the Whittier building where it occupies three rooms. With innovations that make it easier for art students to realize their potential and accomplish their goals, it has a freer atmosphere which encourages creativity and originality and enhances the learning experience.

Jack Palmer on Hat Day

Homecoming is a time of bustling activity and involvement. This year, under the Rally Squad's auspices several new activities were introduced into Homecoming tradition. Noontime tricycle races, a sock-hop, Hat Day, and a float competition were included along with the perennial pep assemblies, serpentine and bonfire.

For those unfortunates who declined to participate in the designated activities, there was "Spirit Court," complete with a mock judge and jury to sentence the spiritless.

All in all, well-planned activities along with an excellent reception by the student body of DHS combined to make "Homecoming '69" a terrific success.

The CRUCIBLE

Peggy Lafrenz

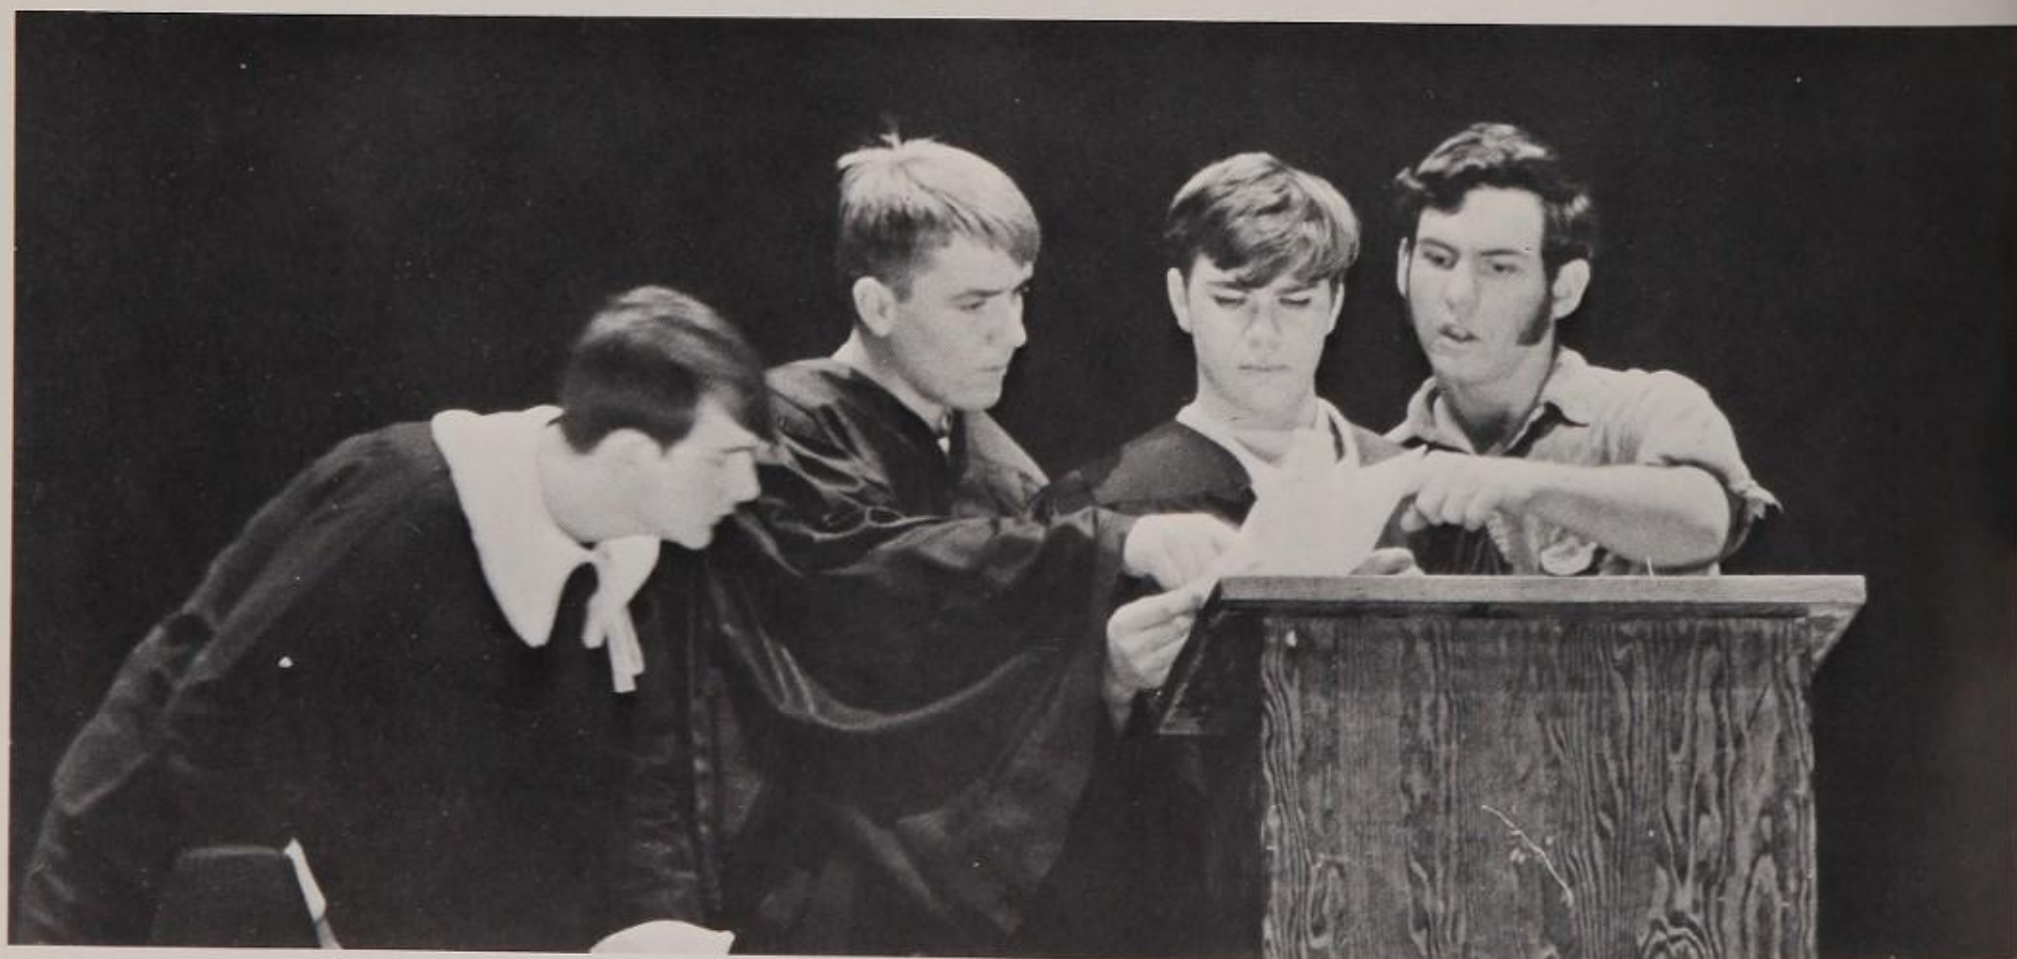

Johanna Dick

THE CRUCIBLE, a play by Arthur Miller, dramatized the witchcraft trials of Salem, Massachusetts. More than that, by the incidents and personalities revealed, it considered human nature, with its hypocrisy and guilt. Miller wrote THE CRUCIBLE during Joe McCarthy's hunt for communists, as he saw some kinship in the two events. Only recently has it gained recognition as a moving portrait of certain, less attractive facets of the creature man.

Sarah Gay, Mary Ann Turner

The German Christmas Festival told the story of Home Economics to faculty members, students and townspeople. It taught the students participating many facts of German culture. Ute Becker, the German exchange student, was presented to the community at her very best for she talked of customs and experiences close to her during the holiday season. Home economic students were the hosts and hostesses.

This year's four one act plays gave a representative slice of life. From sordid to whimsical, from drama to comedy, "The Amicable Parting," "The Image," "The Simple Truth," and "Before Breakfast" were four plays that offered a variety of characters for the experienced actors and those on stage for the first time.

Powderpuff basketball, sponsored by Girls' League, proved an exciting night for participants and spectators alike. Junior King Ed Sandoz reigned over the festivities, and was attended by Sophomore Prince Terry Hamilton and Senior Prince Steve Garrett. The Blues squeezed past the Pinkies 24-22. This would not even have happened without the not-so-subtle help of Rick Cooper.

I'll catch the sun
And never give it back again.
I'll catch the sun
And keep it for my own.

And in a world where no one understands
I'll take my outstretched hand,
And offer it
To anyone
Who comes along
And tells me he's in need of love,
In need of hope,
Or maybe just a friend.

Perhaps in time
I'll even share my sun
With that new anyone,
To whom I gave my hand.

The football season of 1969 at The Dalles High School was one of defeat. The Indians opened with a loss to Jesuit, 0-24. They made up for this loss by winning the next two games: beating Canby, 28-6, and Mollala, 13-0. After these wins The Dalles was continually shut down until they upset their arch rival, Wy'East, with a score of 14-6. This game became the highlight of the season and softened the blow of the other losses. Losing the Homecoming game against the Silverton Foxes, 19-30, the 1969 football season closed with a 3-6 record.

The Dalles Indian basketball team completed their most successful season since 1953, compiling a record of 16 wins and only 6 losses. They finished both halves of Wilco League play with identical 8-2 record, giving them a 16-4 league record and a third place finish. The nucleus of this year's team will return for the 1971 season, thus, another fine team is expected next year. Two seniors, Del Bradford and Kris Thomsen, Junior Ed Sandoz, and Sophomores Ron Stover and Jim Willis, were the five which played the majority of the time and were so instrumental in the team's success. The Dalles' longest winning streak of the season was stopped at 7 games when Jesuit, the Wilco League champion and eventual runner-up in the state tournament, defeated them 57-53 on the Indian's home court. This was the only home court loss The Dalles suffered in ten contests played at Kurtz Gymnasium. Perhaps the biggest win for the young Indians came in the first half of the season when they defeated the number five team in state rankings, the Reynolds Lancers, 62-59 in an overtime thriller before an overflow crowd at The Dalles High gym. The most disappointing defeats had to be the 45-44 loss to Silverton which kept them out of the first half play-offs and their loss to Reynolds in the final game of the season which removed them from second half play-offs and a chance to participate in the state tournament. It is apparent that basketball at The Dalles is definitely on an upswing as the 31-13 record over the past two seasons so indicates. The crowds at the home games were almost always near capacity and the community and school support given this year's Indian team was most gratifying. It is hoped that Coach Paul Poetsch's building program at The Dalles can be climaxed by a trip to the state tournament in 1971.

The Dalles High School baseball team had a successful season as they captured the Wilco League title for the second year in a row. They went into the quarter-finals at Madison with a 13 win-1 loss record (after beating second place LaSalle in the Wilco League playoff). The Dalles lost the quarter-final game, 10-0, to Madison, last years state champions. The season was highlighted with a series of seven games played on the island of Oahu in Hawaii. The team, sponsored by the community, spent their spring vacation playing against that state's best teams. The Dalles team faired poorly losing to Kailua 4-2, Damien 11-3, Punahou 8-3, Waipahu 5-4, Tolani 6-5, and Kamehameha 6-4. They won only one game, that being against Farrington, with a score of 7-2. All the Hawaiian teams were at least halfway through their seasons; The Dalles was just starting. Three players from The Dalles were named to the Wilco League all-star team: Steve Garrett, pitcher; Gary Hill, 3rd base; Steve Wilkins, outfield. Jim Willis received honorable mention at 1st base. Gary Hill was also selected to first team, all-state. This was the first time anyone from DHS has made any all-state first team in any sport in 10 years.

The Dalles track team was a young one this year having only 3 senior members, John Day, Dwight Workinger, and Dan Lester. Sophomores and juniors dominated the team along with several promising freshmen. Considering how young the team was, Coach Miller was pleased at their results. The Dalles placed fifth in district competition with 50 $\frac{1}{4}$ points. Placing for DHS were Bruce Randall, third in the high hurdles, fifth in the broad jump, and sixth in the high jump; Dave Lucas, third in the 880 and sixth in the two-mile; Jerry Day, fifth in both the mile and the two-mile; Terry Walter, fourth in the pole vault; and Jim Healy, sixth in the 880. John Day, the sole member to qualify for state, took firsts in both the mile and two-mile at district, and went on to place fifth in state-wide competition.

The sun gazed brightly down
 As it moved cross the sky;
 No troubles could be seen
 In its all-knowing eye.
 Out of a cave man crawled
 To hunt through the warm spring,
 To live in nature's grasp
 Like every living thing.
 His sons would build a hut
 And seed and grow wild grain,
 Working against the land
 While praying for the rain.

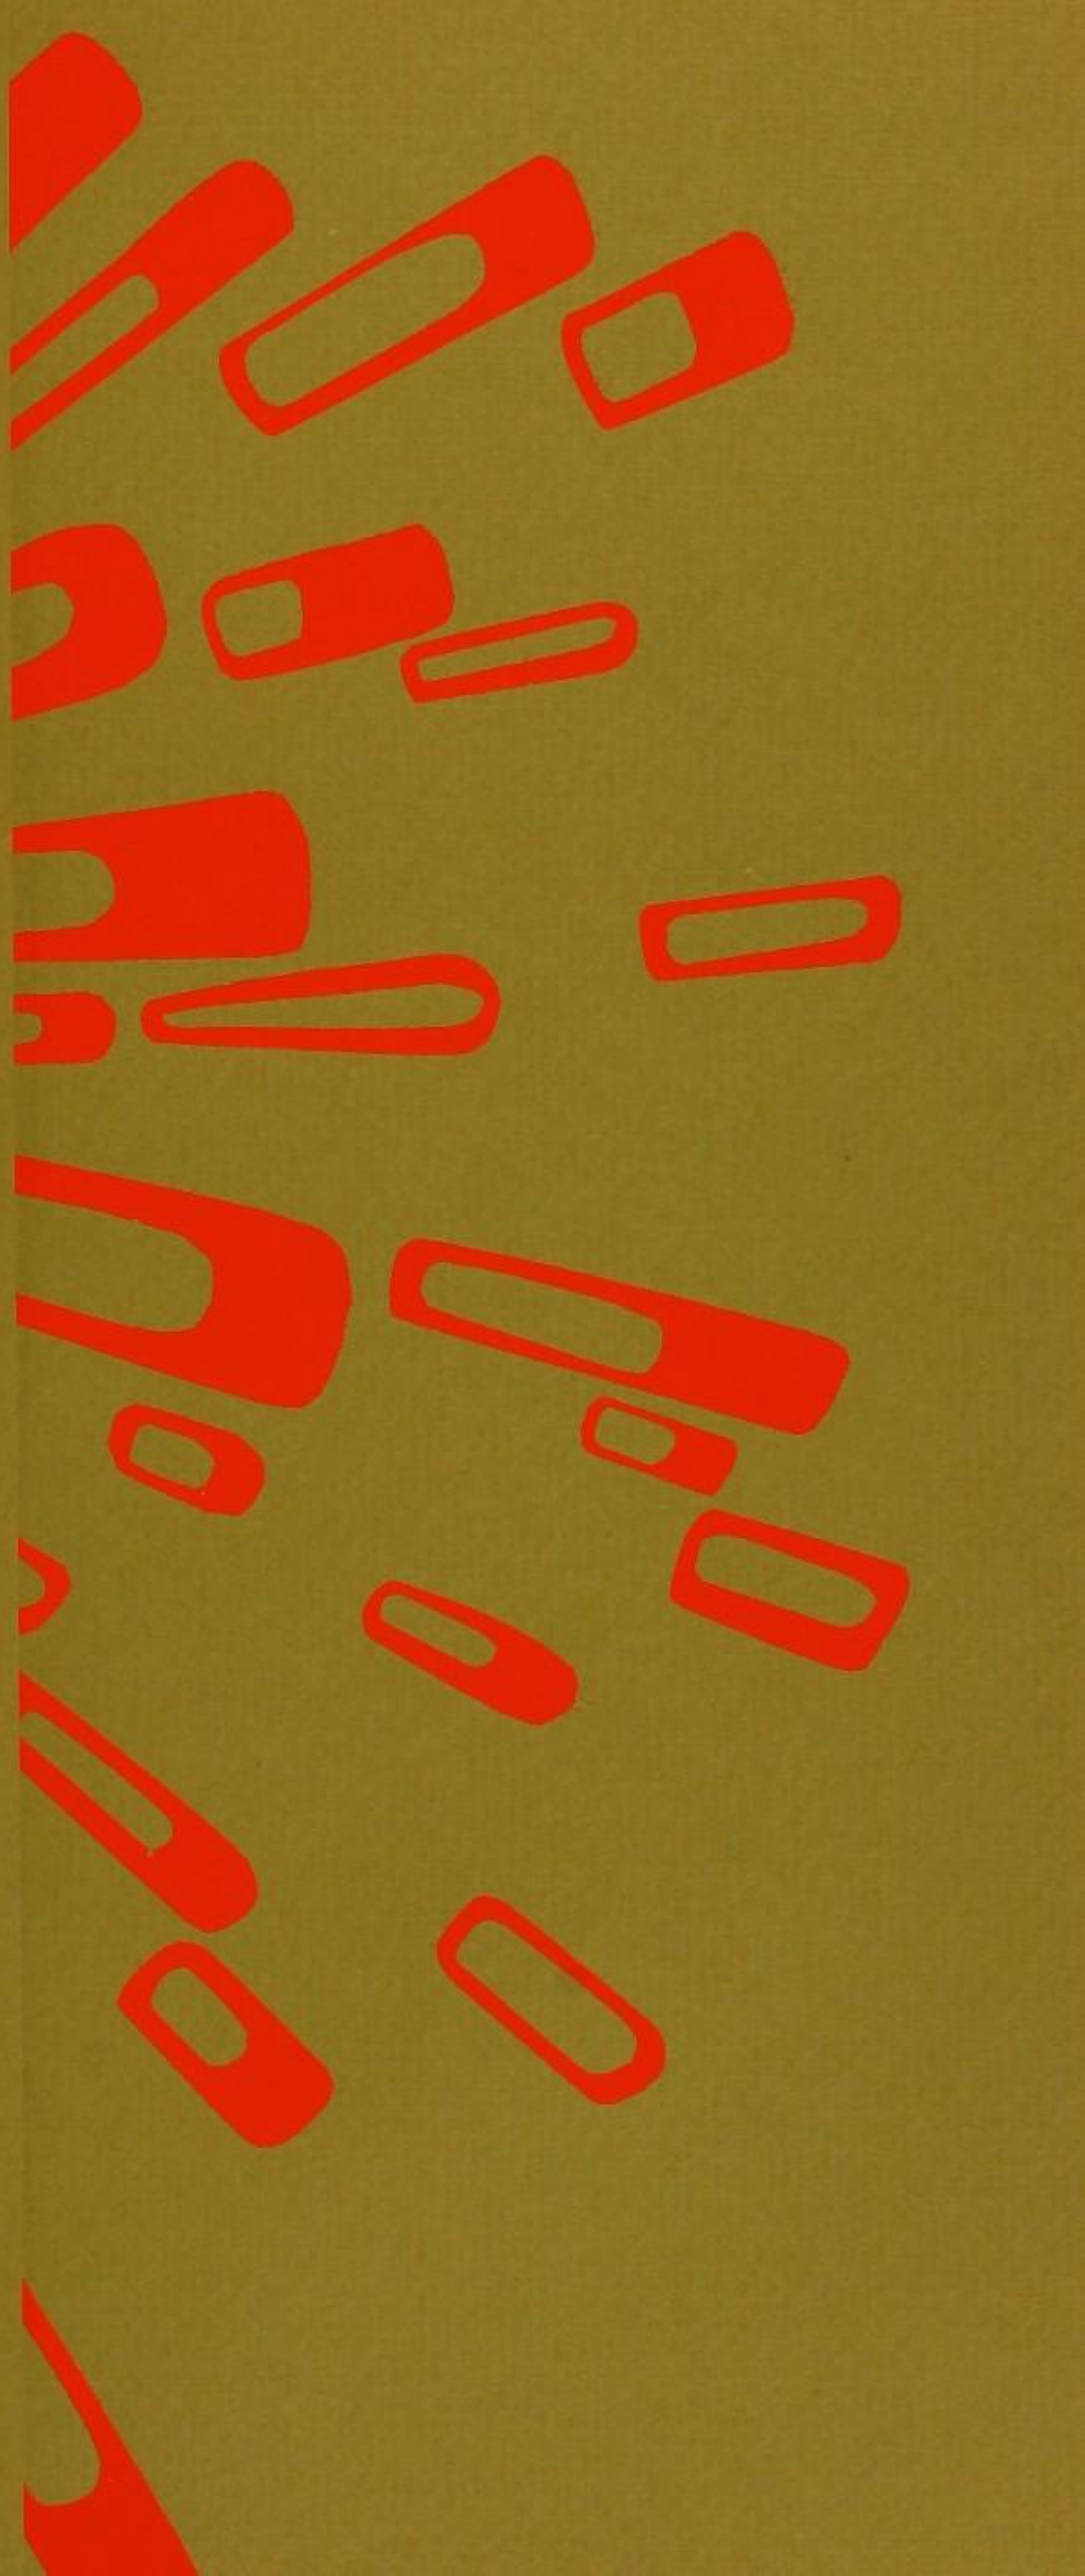

The sun crawled on its way
 Giving its warmth and light
 And not seeming to judge
 That which moved in tis sight.
 The sons of sons tamed beasts
 And built their walls of stone,
 And they began to trade,
 And metal replaced bone.
 The new sons wrote their thoughts
 To share the things they knew.
 They worked with art and war
 As their city-states grew.

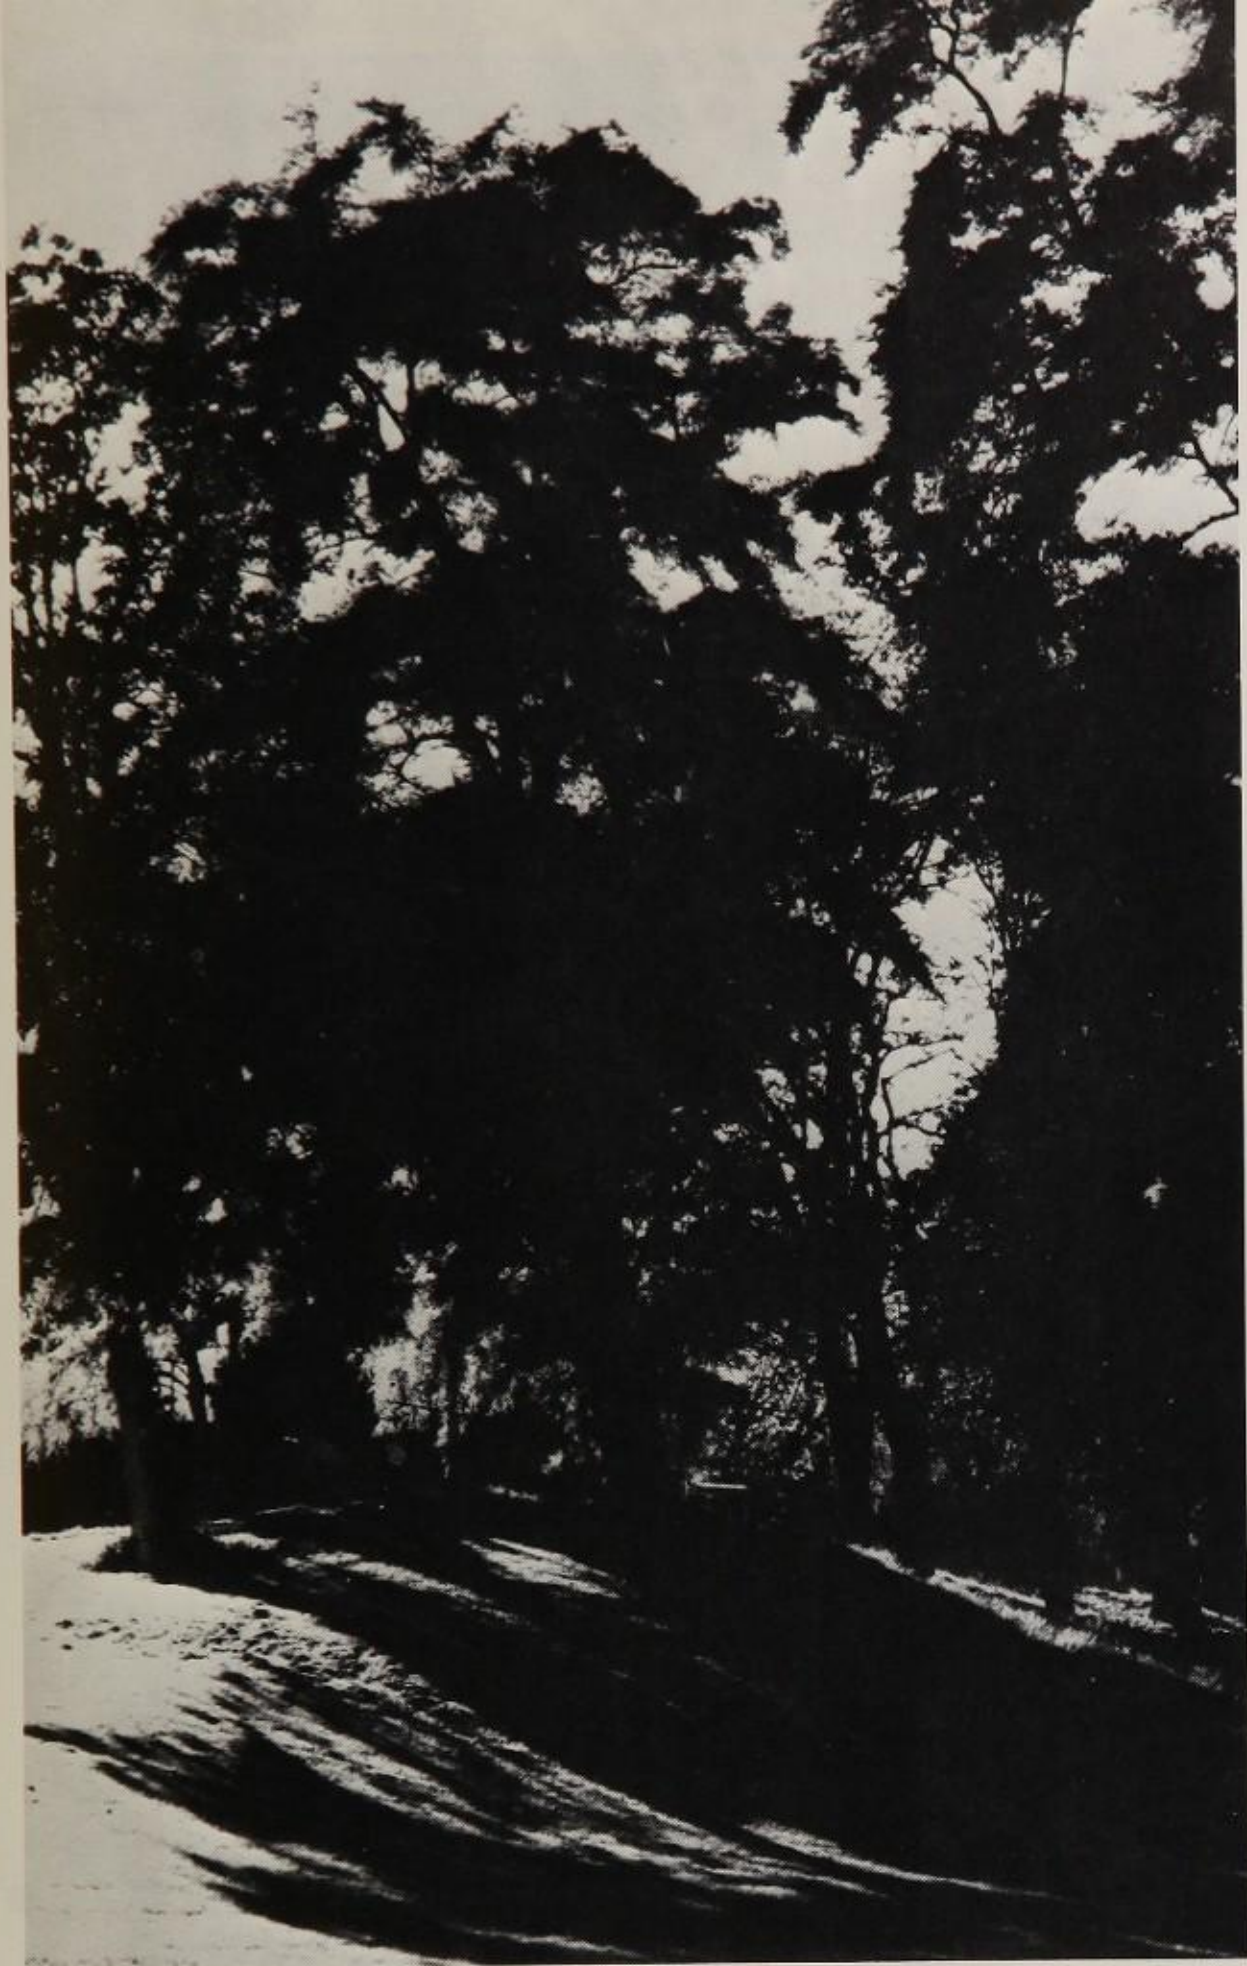

The sun continued on
 Ignoring all it saw
 It raced on to the west
 Yielding not to man's law.
 As man conquered his world
 His numbers soared still higher.
 With his science he built
 Machines that ran on fire.
 He killed the game for sport
 And cut the timber stand.
 He clogged the air with smoke
 His wastes filled stream and land.

The sun fled ever on
 Perhaps it dared not look.
 When man reached out his arms,
 The very heavens shook.
 The land and sky grew foul;
 Man's numbers filled the earth
 And wars racked continents
 As babies starved from birth.
 Man's hand held the atom
 To use in peace and war
 He could not breathe his wealth
 Nor could he feed his poor.

Another year has fled from me
And I'm push towards eternity.
Decisions I must quickly make
Will haunt whichever road I take.
These friends and foes I'll never know
Pass swiftly by like swirls of snow
I am a tree. I stand alone.
The shifting's my only home.

—John R. Miller

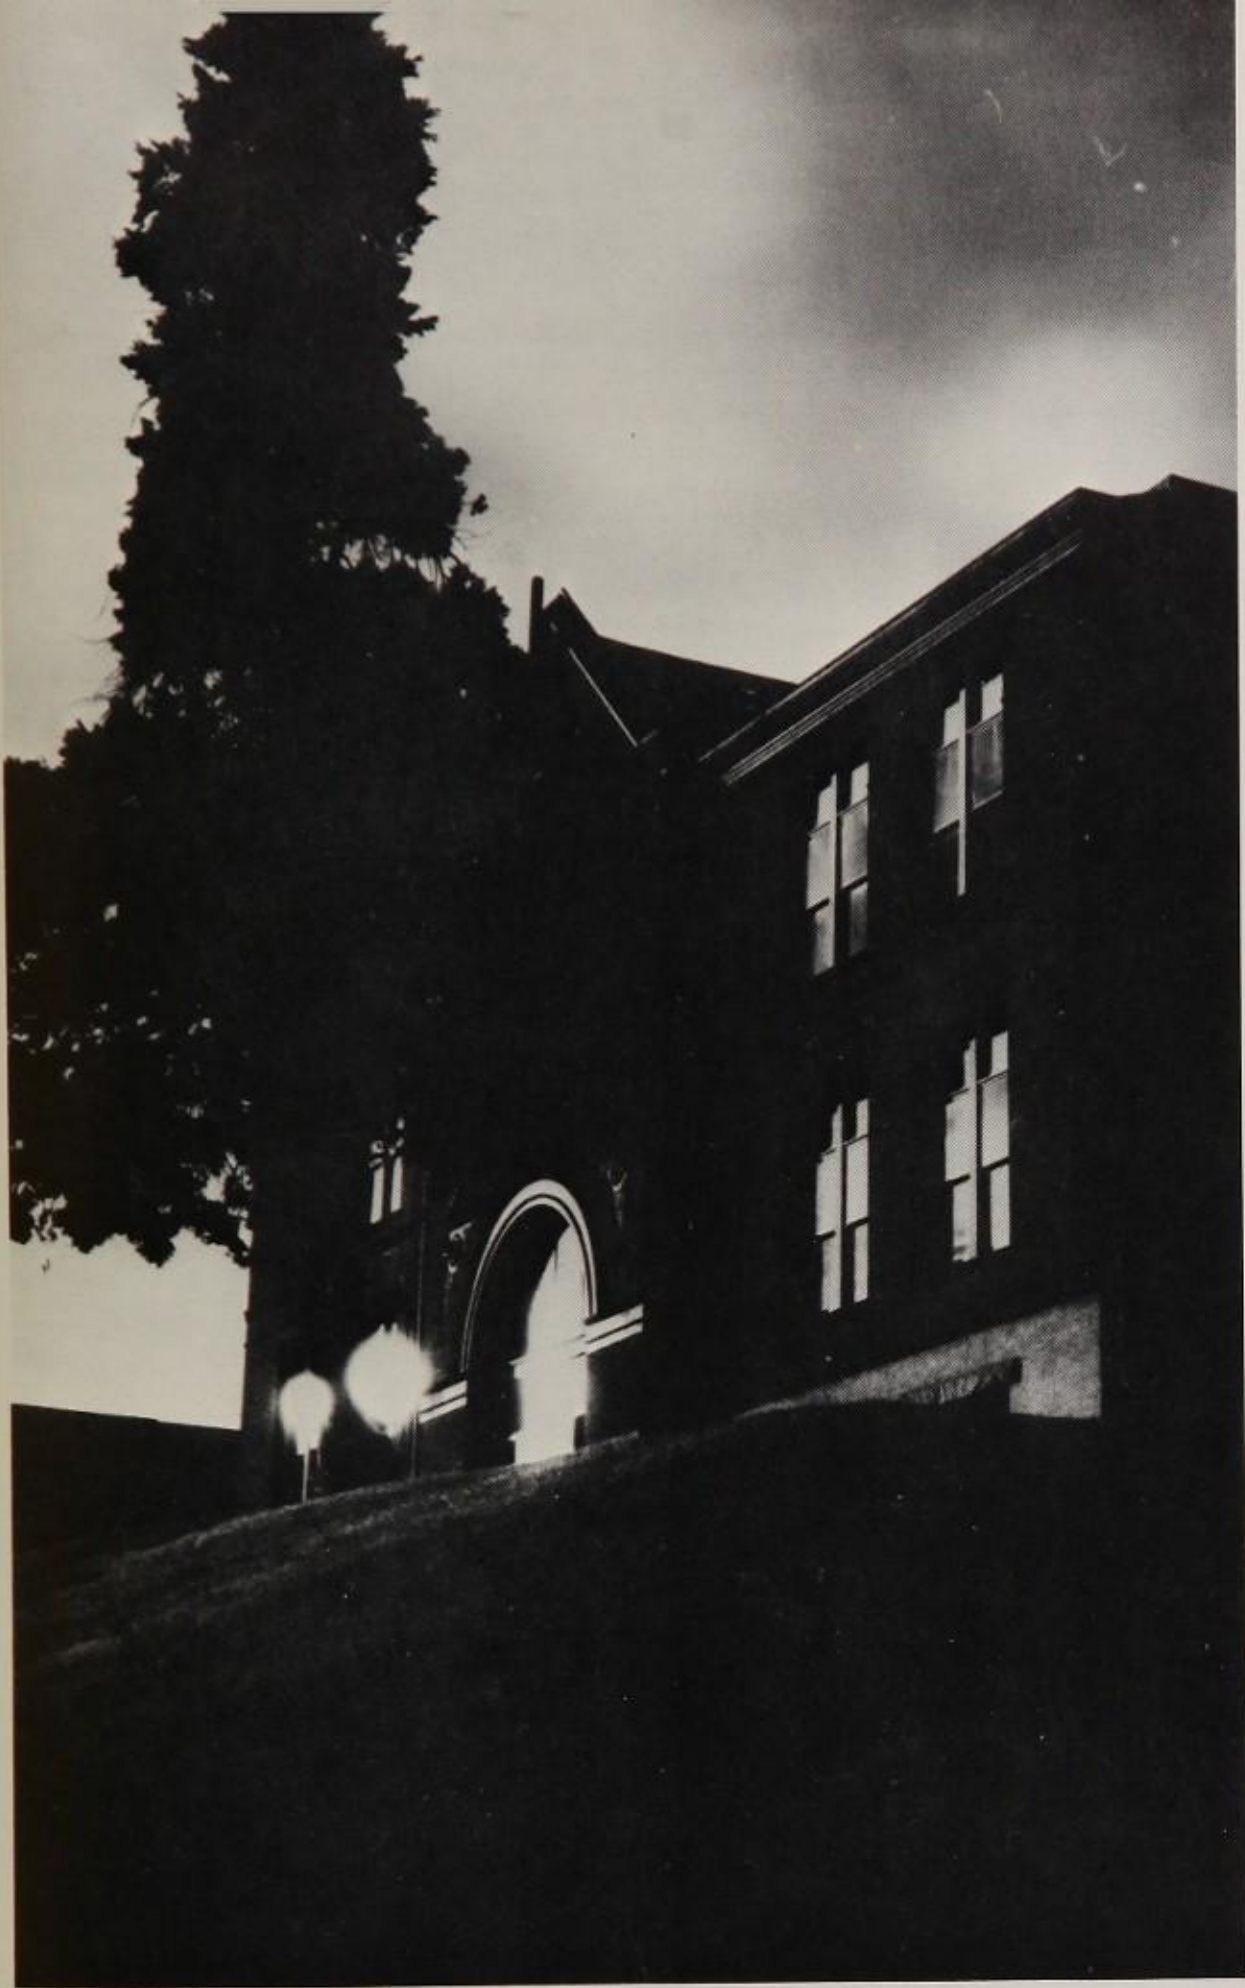

Yes, glass and steel and brick and stone
They make a school, but not alone.
The need and will to question why
Lures young minds to try to fly.
The spirit that makes many one
United to reach for the sun
This is the way I'd see my school
Or is this the dream of a fool.

A guest from Guadalupe, Costa Rica, was Anabelle Vargas Porras, who lived with the Tad McCoy Family. Ana was a member of Ski Club, Honor Society, and FHA. She enjoyed playing the piano and the flute. During her visit at DHS, Ana liked her art and English classes best. She plans to attend college in Costa Rica to study these subjects further.

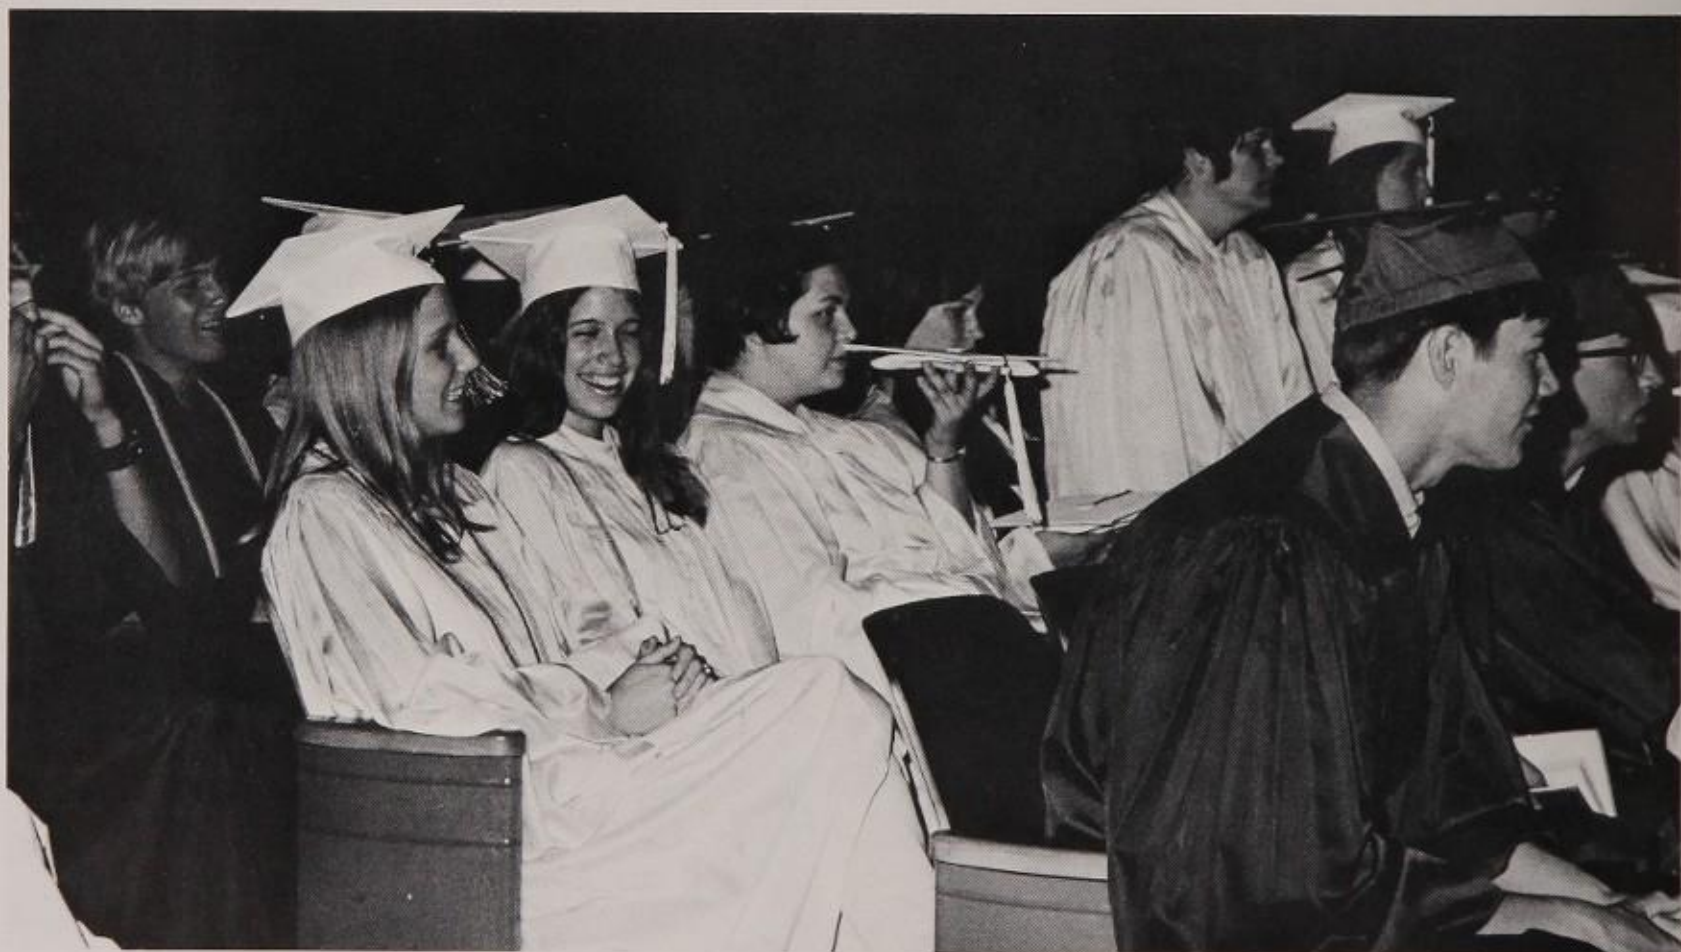

DHS was quite fortunate in having Jan Soloy represent us as a summer AFS Exchange Student during 1969. Jan lived with the Alfred Bürki family in Bern, Switzerland. Mr. Burki and his wife Elizabeth, both architects, have two daughters, Regula, 19, and Judith, 15. While in Switzerland, Jan spoke Swiss, German, and French. Jan enjoyed everything about her trip, including a six week vacation in Schwazenburg.

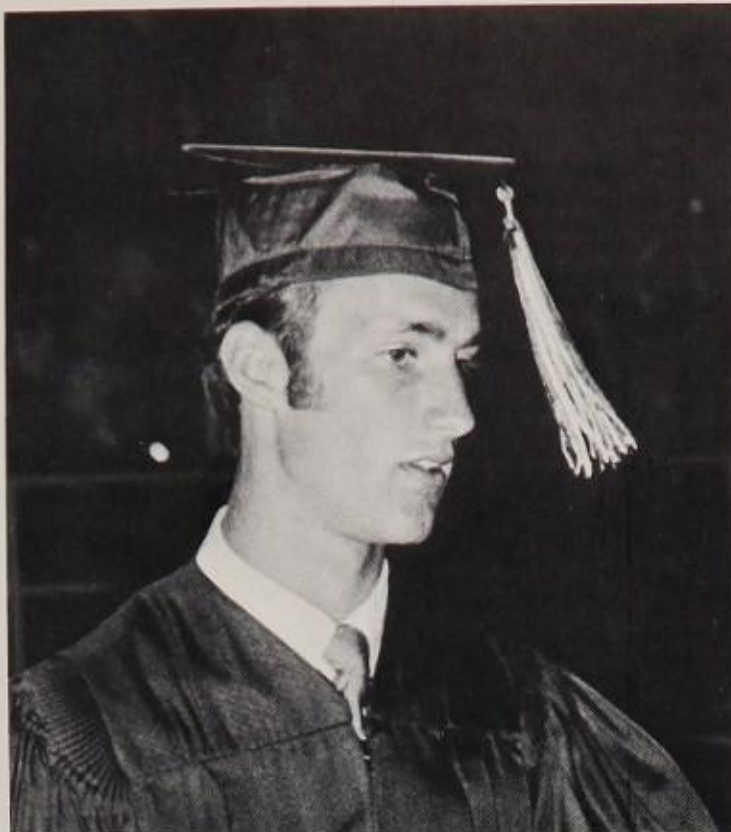

The 1969-1970 AFS Exchange Student was Ute Becker. Ute, a very energetic brunette from Cologne, Germany, lived with the John Kerege family during her stay in The Dalles. Ute was a member of Ski Club, FHA, and Honor Society. She was quite active in sports, participating in powderpuff football and basketball, playing volleyball, tennis, and swimming whenever possible. Ute was interested in DHS government and attended class meetings as well as Student Council meetings. She had no particular favorites as far as teachers and classes. She enjoyed them all. Ute left The Dalles to arrive in Germany July 17. Behind her she left many friends at DHS.

Graduation
